International Graduate Employee Accounting and Legal Assistance Fund
Application for Academic Year 2025-2026
DUE: November 1, 2026

Effective for the 2025-2026 academic year, this fund has been established for accounting and legal assistance of international graduate employees. The fund is $20,000 for the academic year 2025-2026 and is apportioned based upon the number of eligible applicants and the amounts requested.

The subsidy is available to those graduate student employees who meet both eligibility criteria:

- Must have held a GSOC bargaining unit position during the academic year 2025-2026.
- Must be an international graduate student at NYU.

To apply, please fill out this form and attach:

1. A copy of your appointment letter for one semester of work in a bargaining unit position during the academic year 2025-2026;
2. A copy of a bill for the accounting or legal services you sought during the academic year 2025-2026; and
3. The attached affidavit, signed and notarized, proving your international graduate employee status.

Please be sure to keep the original of any materials you submit. Return the completed application by email to <gsoc@actuaw.org>.
